

Commonwealth Legacy and Community Development

University of Glasgow

5th December 2013

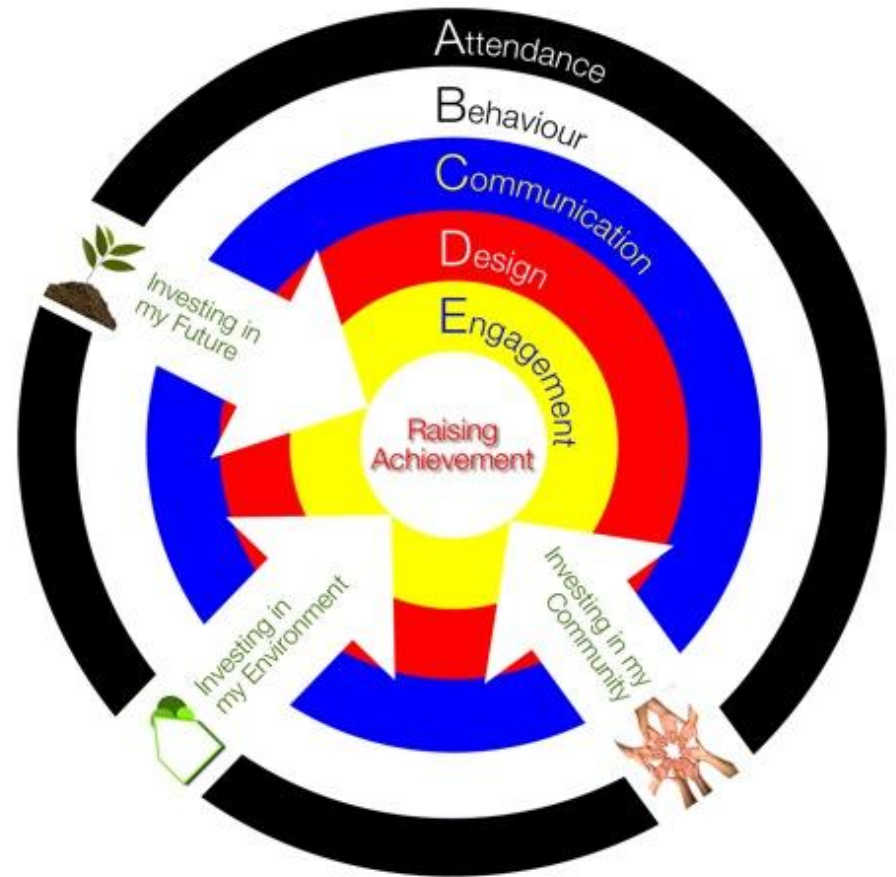

Glasgow, a city for the future:
The EcCowell Approach 2020

Workshop co- conveners:

Margaret Layden, Regeneration Manager ng homes
Anthony Davis, PhD Student University of Glasgow

What is the Legacy?

Opportunity provided by a major event to help motivate and inspire individuals, stakeholders and communities, in such a way that can act as a catalyst for economic and social change

2014 Games Legacies

An aerial photograph of a modern urban development, likely the Glasgow 2014 Olympic Park. The image shows a mix of residential and commercial buildings, green spaces with trees, and a prominent red running track with white lane markings. In the foreground, there are two outdoor sports courts, possibly basketball or tennis, with blue and green surfaces. The overall scene is bright and shows a well-planned, integrated community.

Prosperity through investment and community regeneration

Sports & health inspiring citizens to become more active and participate in sports

International appeal showcase Glasgow, strengthen image

Where are we?

An aerial photograph of a large, modern stadium with a distinctive grey, textured roof and a green field. The stadium is surrounded by urban development, including residential areas, parking lots, and other buildings. The image is used as a background for the text.

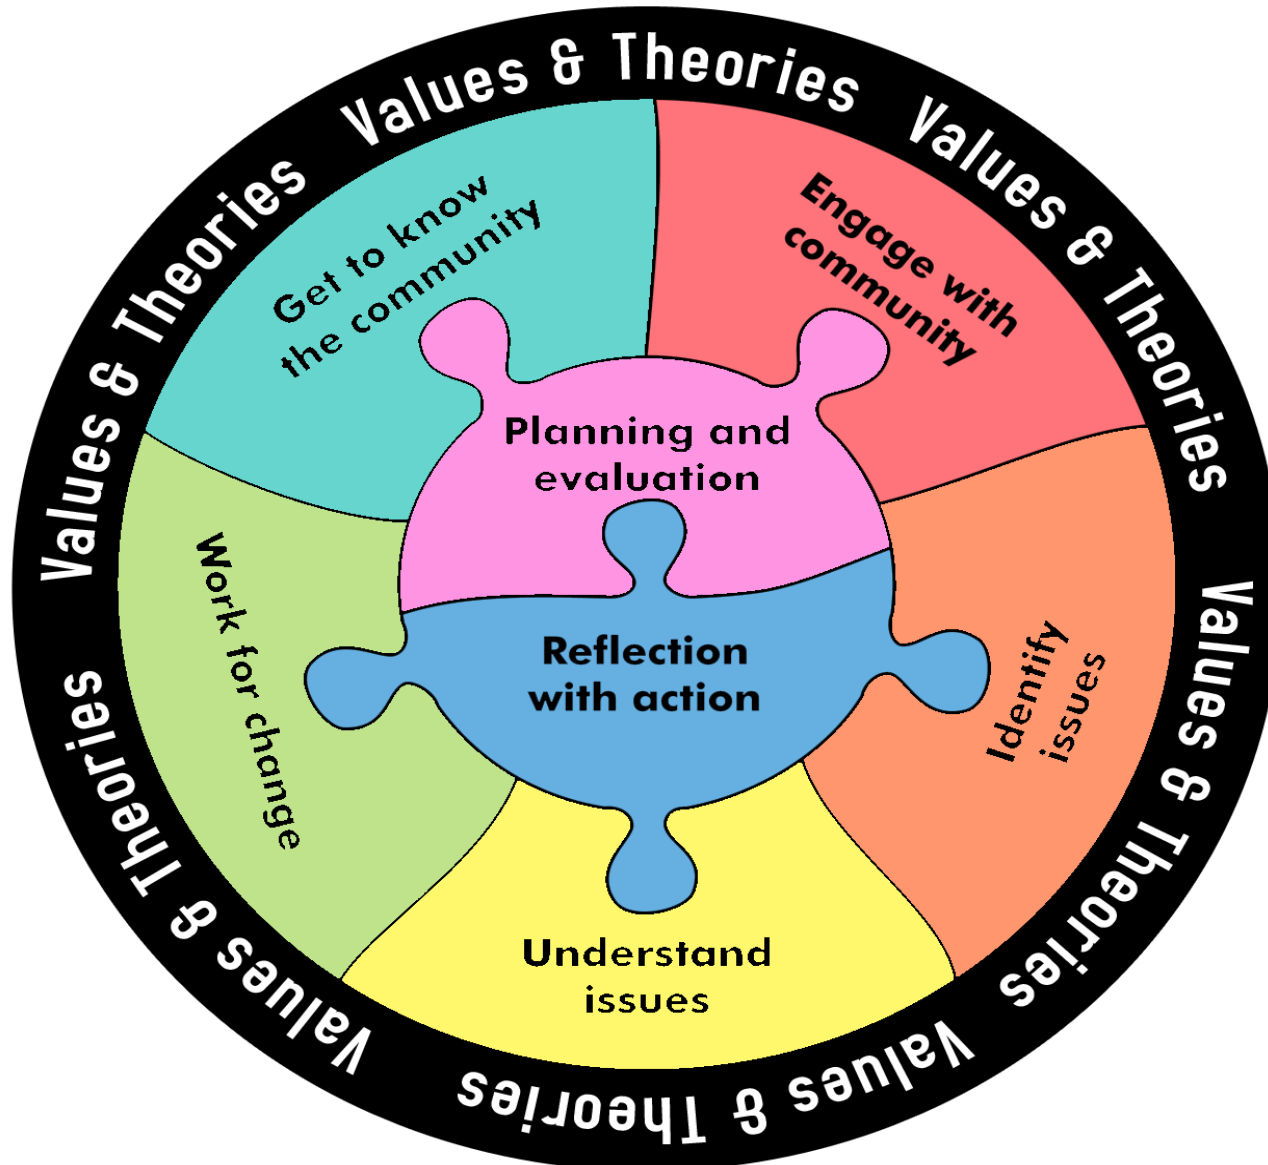

Is the legacy well known to the man in the street?

Will legacy benefit Glasgow or Scotland?

In what way will communities and or individuals benefit from the legacy?

What methods will be used to assess?

CD Values and theories

ng Commonwealth Legacy Programme

- Issue – lack of connectedness to games north of city
- Increase participation
- Increase connectivity
- Create new opportunities
- Work for change
- Meaningful partnerships
- Sport, Education, Health
- School of Hard Knocks
- Community Rugby
- Rugby – Lowmoss Prison
- Swimming pre fives
- Swim for Change
- Cycling programme
- Activate course

A Legacy for North Glasgow

Workshops

1. How do we build a web of connections between agencies for more humane, inclusive and sustainable cities?

2. Where is the added value in taking a holistic approach?