

You are receiving this letter as subscriber of Training & Employment. We are pleased to present you the first edition of Céreq News, the new quarterly supplement on Céreq's research topics and ongoing studies.

FOCUS

Youth Employment Quality in Europe National disparities during the crisis

Improving the quantity and quality of jobs is a major political challenge in Europe. Céreq researchers questioned how the 15-24 year-olds were affected during the crisis.

How has the quality of their jobs evolved in the different Member States?

+ Read more

LATEST NEWS

Tracking graduates in Maghreb countries

Céreq was called to collaborate to the European project Islah, set up in October 2012 with 11 Moroccan and Tunisian universities, to improve monitoring and employability of graduates. Céreq's mission was to transfer its know-how and expertise to local research units in order to develop, at lower cost, efficient monitoring tools to investigate on higher education leavers.

+ Read more

Enhancing youth capabilities in Europe

AGENDA

07/10/2015

4th Céreq's Biennale

Negotiate, regulate, support
The training-employment relationship through the lense of professional branches.
Registration on biennale's website: biennale2015.cereq.fr

24-31/10/2015

Workers capabilities

Josiane Vero and Bénédicte Zimmermann will present the result of their interdisciplinary researches (economy and sociology) dealing with the impact of French companies' vocational training schemes on the development of workers capabilities at the Hitotsubashi University (Japan).

THEY CAME TO SEE US

16-17/06/2015

Ute Hippach Schneider (BIBB, Germany) and Kurt Schmid (IBW, Austria) came to exchange with Céreq Staff on their higher-Vet project, a comparative study on vocational education and training at levels 5 to 7 of European Qualifications Framework.

23-25/06/2015

Bibiana Volkmer Martins (Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil) came in the framework of its PhD thesis research on expansion and professionalisation of Higher Education in a comparative Franco-Brazilian perspective.

PAST EVENTS

2-5/09/2015

Part-time work for youth