PURPOSE

The conference theme is generated by several factors and challenges that have been widely debated at various international forums and, first of all, at the UN Transforming Education Summit 2022 (the future of education) and at the OECD Summit on Educational Policies in 2022. In this context, the lifelong education paradigm remains current and prioritized.

The UNESCO Recommendations on education for international understanding, cooperation and peace, fundamental human rights and freedoms remain important.

ADVANTAGES

The advantages of participating in the CIEA 2023 works:

- the possibility to address the most acute problems of adult education in the context of the challenges of the contemporary world;
- the possibility of disseminating scientific and methodological information at an international level;
- publication of works in DOI indexed journals and volumes;
- the possibility of establishing new collaboration and partnership relations between institutions, national and international organizations.
